FGF TRAPANI SA, ARGENTINA

Launch a competition for teachers and students of health careers and for local civil society organizations

Name:

2nd award for the welfare of children and adolescents in rural areas.

Description:

This competition awards prizes in two categories: one for teachers and students of health careers, and the other for local civil society organizations.

This competition aims to motivate those who selflessly contribute to the welfare of our community with their efforts while raising awareness of the importance of working in these spheres of daily life to eradicate child labour and protect young people.

Implementation plan:

- Launch and disseminate competition call for entries
- Mandatory training on the health implications of child and adolescent labour for competition participants
- Reception of project ideas and acceptance of the terms and conditions
- Evaluation of the proposals received
- Awarding of prizes

Impact:

- Training and awareness raising among strategic social actors
- Highlighting this widespread problem in our society
