End child labour and exploitation and ensure better response measures for survivors in Fiji!

Name:

Ending Child labour and exploitation and ensuring better response measures for survivors in Fiji!

Description:

For Fiji Women's Crisis Center, we pledge that as part of our awareness and training program we will continue to raise awareness on child labour and exploitation as well as provide counseling and other support services needed by the survivors of these crimes.

Implementation plan:

Community mobilizations through training and awareness sessions will empower the communities to look out for these crimes and assist the survivors in getting help. In addition, training of key stakeholders will enable them to respond appropriately and sensitively to survivors.

We will continue to provide confidential and non-judgmental crisis counselling and other support services (if needed) for survivors of child labour and exploitation through FWCC and its four branches around Fiji, that is, in Nadi, Ba, Rakiraki and Labasa.

In light of the COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions currently in Fiji, FWCC still continues with these services but over the phone and online.

Impact:

It will help empower communities to call out and assist survivors of child labour and exploitation. It also ensures that survivors get the appropriate assistance at the right time.
