FREE DOVE, EGYPT

Continue supporting sustainable community development

Name:

Sustainable community development.

Description:

Free Dove is a children's educational center for refugees and was founded in 2009 in Cairo, Egypt. Runaway and refugee children are supported and steered towards education. Free Dove has three main objectives: education, health, and the development program. Free Dove works to create change.

Implementation plan:

By teaching children academics, Free Dove has taught many refugee children and helped them get into Egyptian universities since the date of its foundation.

Impact:

Education represents a fundamental starting point in children's lives, as it cultivates feelings of confidence and hope for their future lives.
