

ORGANIZATION

Grambangla Unnayan Committee, Bangladesh
pledges to

End the worst forms of child labour from the supply chain of ready-made garment and leather industry in Bangladesh

GRAMBANGLA UNNAYAN COMMITTEE, BANGLADESH

End the worst forms of child labour from the supply chain of ready-made garment and leather industry in Bangladesh

Name:

Ending Worst Forms of Child Labour from the Supply Chain of Ready Made Garment and Leather Industry in Bangladesh

Description:

Grambangla Unnayan Committee has already conducted a Mapping of children engaged in the worst forms of child labour and modern slavery in the supply chain of the leather industry in Bangladesh and currently working to tackle Worst Forms of Child Labour through different approaches of Participatory Action Research. Grambangla Unnayan Committee has also conducted a situation analysis study on the street children in Bangladesh and implementing different types of advocacy activities. The 2021 Action Pledge of Grambangla Unnayan Committee is to "Eliminate Worst Forms of Child Labour from the Supply Chains of Leather and Ready-Made Garment Industries of Bangladesh through Research and Action".

Implementation plan:

Grambangla Unnayan Committee will act to eliminate the worst forms of child labour and modern slavery in the supply chain of the leather and ready-made garment industries through conducting series of research studies and actions.

Impact:

Research studies have already helped generate data and evidence on the Worst Forms of Child Labour in the supply chain of the leather and ready-made garment industries. Based on the research data Grambangla Unnayan Committee is designing and implementing a set of participatory action research, advocacy, policy dialogue, intervention programs in Bangladesh.

Website, Facebook