Mobilize action to end child labour, including its worst forms

Name:

Mobilize action to end child labour, including its worst forms, while leaving no child behind.

Description:

We pledge to mobilize key stakeholders at all levels to take action to end all forms of child labour, involve children and youth, and amplify their voices.

Implementation plan:

We will use the global platform provided by our Mandate from the United Nations General Assembly to mobilize all key stakeholders, for accelerated action to end all forms of child labour and address its drivers.

Impact:

We will raise awareness and mobilize action among key stakeholders against child labour, a severe violation of children's rights that undermines investments in children, national development and progress toward the Sustainable Development Goals, to ensure children live free from fear, violence, exploitation and abuse.
